

Martijn Hamann

Partner, Endeit Capital

Martijn joined Endeit Capital at the start as Partner in 2006. Today, he is responsible for deals in Germany, UK, Nordics.

Until 2006 he was a member of the Executive Director team of Endemol Group, one of the world's largest independent providers of content for television & all other screens.

In 2004, Martijn acted as Interim Director of Endemol's International mobile entertainment subsidiary Overloaded. Early 2005, Martijn became Executive Director at Endemol for Business Development & International Operations, responsible for managing the worldwide key subsidiaries, especially related to developing new business and new markets. Prior to Endemol, Martijn Hamann gained extensive experience in various M&A transactions as consultant of the Dutch M&A boutique Reitsma & Wertheim. He holds a Bachelor in Economics and a Masters Degree in Business Administration from the Erasmus University in Rotterdam.

He is observer on the board of portfolio company Spil Games, global publisher of online and mobile casual games. Martijn is involved with portfolio company Smartclip, the German based multi-screen video and advertising platform. Martijn was also a board member at (former) portfolio companies Unruly, Improve Digital, Spil Games, Advance, CBV and Accepte/Paylogic.